REAL ESTATE, RENTAL, AND LEASING

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Executive Summary

In 2014, the real estate, rental, and leasing sector employed 14,106 people in Iowa representing about 0.9 percent of employment (both public and private sector) in the state.

This industry was hit hard by the real estate bubble and recession. Employment shrank by 12.9 percent between 2006 and the lowest point in 2010. In recent years, the sector has recovered some. Since 2010, this sector has grown by 9.7 percent to 14,106 employees but has never regained its peak of 14,659 from 2006.

Wages have grown steadily, increasing by 39.5 percent since 2006. This industry went from lower than the state average to having a wage a bit higher than the typical Iowan.

While wages in this industry are middle-of-the-pack for this region, employees in this sector make 17.5 percent less than the national average wage.

Neither gender dominates this subsector, but men have a slight edge, representing about 52.6 percent of sector employment.
